

Rigorous Learning Culture – Primary Focus for 2016-17

Why

- ❖ To effectively provide an innovative approach to teaching and learning which embraces the willingness to take risks, the capacity of the individual learner, the diversity of interests, and the richness of technology

What

- ❖ Meaningful Student Engagement
- ❖ Authentic Learning Opportunities

How

- ❖ Goal-oriented planning and preparation
- ❖ Evaluation of and reflection on expectations

Curricular Scope and Sequence – Primary Focus for 2017-18

Why

- ❖ To ensure student learning is supported by a curriculum that provides authentic learning experiences allowing students the opportunity for a more personalized education

What

- ❖ Refine existing curricular scope and sequence
- ❖ Refine vertical and horizontal alignment grades 6-12
- ❖ Develop a system of internal communication and access

How

- ❖ Evaluate content standards
- ❖ Document curriculum vertically and horizontally
- ❖ Ensure alignment to content standards
- ❖ Create common and organized communication system through Google Drive

Comprehensive Assessment Platform – Primary focus for 2018-19

Why

- ❖ To evaluate student learning and adjust instruction in order to ensure a rigorous curriculum is being provided that provides the knowledge and skills necessary to make a difference in our society and to compete for a career in a complex global economy

What

- ❖ Ensure Quality Classroom Assessment and Grading Practices
- ❖ Investigate How Our Assessment and Grading Practices Inform Student Learning
- ❖ Implementation of Measured Progress and SAT Suite

How

- ❖ Build understanding of Formative and Summative Assessment and Data Analysis
- ❖ Provide support and resources for understanding of collecting evidence of student learning
- ❖ Build understanding of and implement Depth of Knowledge Rigor Wheel
- ❖ Consider National Student Clearinghouse data in regards to preparation for post-secondary level
- ❖ Show growth and predictability through Measured Progress and SAT Suite