

Students

Exhibit – HOIC Code of Conduct

The following statements were created by your Heart of Illinois Conference athletes in the spring of 2007. This is the code of conduct that the players in HOIC contests hope to see displayed. Please adhere to the following guidelines.

- Respect our game, yourself, and others.
- Respect our officials at all times.
- Show sportsmanship in victory or defeat.
- Be positive in your actions and comments.
- Never single out an athlete with criticism.
- Set a good example for us and those around you.
- Cheer for good play.
- Practice self control.
- Remember: This is a game, we are here to have fun.

DATED: August 10, 2009